Jesus Christ: His Church and His World

Rev. Dr. Thomas FitzGerald

Session I - Jesus Christ: His Church and His World will focus on the person and ministry of Jesus Christ and how the Church, from Pentecost to the Seven Ecumenical Councils, came to understand, to express, and to live according to His teachings and example.

Session II - Orthodoxy in America will present the development of the Orthodox Churches in the United States from their establishment in the Russian mission to Alaska to the development of multiple jurisdictions in the 20th century and the attempts to unify them.

Rev. Dr. Thomas FitzGerald is Professor of Church History at Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology, Brookline, Massachusetts. He is the author of The Orthodox Church and The Ecumenical Movement: An Introductory History.

Saints as Models of Holiness

Dr. Kyriaki Karidoyanes FitzGerald

A close look at the lives of select women and men in the Orthodox Church who devoted their lives to Christ and the Church for how they might direct the spiritual journey of contemporary Christians. Married saints, male and female deacons, martyrs and others are presented as models for living the Christian life today.

Dr. Kyriaki Karidoyanes FitzGerald writes and lectures on Orthodox spirituality and pastoral theology, and collaborates with initiatives of the Valparaiso Project on the Education and Formation of People in Faith. She is the author of Women Deacons in the Orthodox Church: Called to Holiness and Ministry. She delivered the Distinguished Lectures of PAOI in 2000.

Happy In the Lord: The Beatitudes and Orthodox Spirituality

Dr. Kyriaki Karidoyanes FitzGerald and Rev. Dr. Thomas FitzGerald

Explore the eight Beatitudes as they relate to followers of Christ in their everyday experience. Following the model of early commentaries of the Church, this course will discuss the basics of Christian faith, while offering practical counsel for Christian living.

In Spirit and Truth: Liturgical Spirituality for the 21st Century

Dr. John Klentos

Liturgy and public worship are essential to the Orthodox Christian life. This seminar will provide historical background for what we do and say in Church as well as suggest an Orthodox Liturgical Spirituality. The goal is to help participants better understand and pray the Church's liturgy in 21st century America.

Dr. John Klentos is Associate Professor of Orthodox Christian Studies at the Graduate Theological Union, specializing in liturgy. He is affiliated with the Patriarch Athenagoras Orthodox Institute.
